

Great American Authors Since 1650

Blackline Master Quiz 4A Program 4: 1907 - 1925

1. William Carlos Williams won the Pulitzer Prize for writing
  - a. Poetry
  - b. Novels
  - c. Plays
  - d. All of the above

2. The leader of the realism movement of poetry was
  - a. Carl Sandburg
  - b. Robert Frost
  - c. Walter Whitman
  - d. e.e. cummings

3. Poetry Magazine launched the career of
  - a. Vachel Lindsay
  - b. Carl Sandburg
  - c. Edgar Lee Masters
  - d. All of the above

4. e.e. cummings poetry rejected
  - a. Standard punctuation
  - b. Capitalization
  - c. Conventional arrangement of sentences
  - d. All of the above

5. Ezra Pound mentored
  - a. Edith Wharton
  - b. T.S. Eliot
  - c. F. Scott Fitzgerald
  - d. Gertrude Stein

6. Henry Miller's novels explored the theme of
  - a. Corruption of government
  - b. Women's liberation
  - c. Sex
  - d. All of the above

7. The poem by Robert Frost that expresses America at a crossroads was
  - a. Chicago
  - b. Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening
  - c. Portraits
  - d. The Hollow Men

8. Edith Wharton was the first American woman to win what prize for literature.
  - a. The Nobel Prize
  - b. The Pulitzer Prize
  - c. The Newberry Medal
  - d. None of the above

9. Robert Frost paid tribute to America by praising America's ideals and revealing America's boundless energy and rich traditions of life.
  - a. True
  - b. False

10. America's great age of literature embraced
  - a. The Progressive Era under Roosevelt and Wilson
  - b. World War I
  - c. The Roaring Twenties and the Great Depression
  - d. All of the above

11. F. Scott Fitzgerald's greatest work was
  - a. The Love Song of J. Alfred Prufrock
  - b. The Tropic of Capricorn
  - c. The Age of Innocence
  - d. The Great Gatsby