

A History of Christianity: The First Three Thousand Years

Discussion Points

- Revisiting the true origins of the Christian faith and its forgotten eastward expansion—what can the Western church learn from the Christianity of the East?
- The many faces of Christianity—how different denominations and cultures have met the resurrected son of God, Jesus Christ
- Communicating the history of Christianity to viewers from an increasingly secular Western culture—starting from square one
- Taking on some of the common misconceptions and little-known facts of Christian history—The “Dark Ages,” the origin of confession, etc.
- Splits, schisms, and wars—the history of factions and disagreements within Christianity
- The origins of skepticism within Christendom and how that skepticism has affected both the church and Western culture
- The future of the church in the 21st century—where does Christianity go from here?
